

The core purpose of AIHEN is to use data accumulated from various sensors.

And we use it together with Microsoft Azure Cloud to predict the production volume of laid eggs and to use Artificial Intelligence to automatically detect anomalies in the feeding supply; a really tough challenge for human eyes only.

www.aihen.eu

